

May 13

Today's BRAC announcement seriously impacted the Mississippi Military Coastal communities. I am already in contact with our congressional delegation to decipher this information and to determine the best strategy to help these communities move forward," said Governor Haley Barbour